Prairie-Chicken

Print of original paper-cut art
made especially for Spring
Creek Prairie

Framed by
David Clark Framing

Value - $100

In June of 2017, Meghan Stratman presented us with our very own commissioned Prairie-Chicken made from hundreds of small pieces of cut paper. This year, to help celebrate the YEAR OF THE BIRD, we are auctioning off a print of this piece, framed by David Clark Framing!

"I make art because I want to create characters and tell stories. Each piece is a little vignette, like a frame from a film or a comic-book panel. I like to include bright colors and a sense of humor in my art and enjoy combining elements to humorous effect, such as badgers sporting fezzes or weasels wearing rocket packs. I create my work with cut, layered paper, which allows for a sense of texture and dimensionality." – Meghan Stratman
