

Tastes in the Tallgrass

Celebrate Spring in the Swamp

Item A

Value = $800

Pack your bags now for this exclusive getaway next spring to South Carolina!

The Beidler Forest Audubon Center & Sanctuary is an 18,000-acre preserve located just NW of beautiful Charleston, SC. This magical forest is home to the largest stand of original-growth cypress-tupelo swamp in the world and is a National Natural Landmark and an historic stop on the Undergrown Railroad.

Spring is the absolute best time to immerse yourself in the landscape and enjoy nesting bird specialties, reptiles, river otters, and an amazing firefly display.

The experience includes:

- Two-night stay for 2 at Mallard Lake Lodge
- Two-hour private guided kayak tour through the swamp
- Admission for two to an evening firefly viewing experience
- Free access to 1.75 mile boardwalk during open hours
- Gift Cards to local Charleston-area attractions

AVAILABLE DATES are between April 23 - May 19, 2025.

Audubon

Audubon Center
and Sanctuary
at Francis Beidler Forest