Ceramic Art Dinner Platter

Created & Donated by Gail Kendall

This wondrous piece of ceramic art was lovingly created especially for this event by local and nationally-renowned ceramics artist Gail Kendall. The platter harkens back to earthenware of the past and is one-of-a-kind.

“My ceramic works are influenced by European earthenware pottery and porcelain traditions from the 13th through the 18th centuries. I am attached to terracotta and low-fired technologies as symbols of my heritage.” - Gail Kendall
